

IT IS SETTLED AT LAST.

The Official CANVASS of New York Completed.

AND CLEVELAND'S PLURALITY STAMPS.

The Fraud-Hunters Come to Grief and Throw Up the Sponge.

SECTIONALISM DEAD AND BURIED.

No North, No South, No East, No West, but One Country!—Abraham's Great-ming to the Center.It is settled. The official canvass in New York has been completed and the result is finally what we have held it would be all the time. Cleveland's plurality stands. Nothing can shake it. He is elected President of the United States.
The will of the people has triumphed, and he will be inaugurated. The canvass has been rung down upon fraud, corruption, and sectionalism, and will rise upon honesty, peace, and fraternity.
The desperate game of the conspirators has played out, and they have been forced to accept the inevitable. Last night the Albany troupe telegraphed the Dispatch the following, the perverted sentiment of which will awaken an echo in the heart of every true man throughout the land:

ABRPTLY, N. Y., November 15.—The official canvass in the State is completed, and gives Cleveland 1,147 majority over Blaine.
However unwilling the Republicans are now compelled to submit to the people's will, it will be seen that the figures only vary slightly from those given by the Argus for the past week. We know that we stand on solid ground and hence our invaluable confidence in the result.

GOVERNOR CLEVELAND is receiving renewed congratulations from brave hearts throughout the land who have upheld the Democratic standard in this great battle.
Democrats breathe freer because all doubt is now removed of the accomplishment of the grandest political revolution known to history.

The Argus will announce to-morrow morning that sectionalism is ended; that henceforth there is no North, no South, no East, but one common country.

That victory, often victory to Cleveland and the people.

And so, friends, the needed news comes into possession.

Blaine's loss is to all Russell second best the honor of the year.

But the loss is to all Russell second best the honor of the year.

And to him the street or heart, our friend, dear son.

Who comes with muscles braced and strong—the spirit of New England.

Who is the lord of truth and right as with their mighty hands.

But others strong, successful here, will honest count him.

Angels.

At midnight we received a special from New York city, which we publish below, confirming the news that the official canvass is ended and giving, upon the authority of Colonel Merritt, of the National Republican Committee, the information that the committee had no intention of making an appeal to the courts, which, it is needless to remark, would be utterly futile.

THE CLOSING SCENES.

At Headquarters.—The Blaine Committee Remained on Guard to the Last Moment but the Times Knock Their Gun.

New York, November 15.—The Advising Board of Lawyers on the Democratic side met this morning at the Hoffman House to exchange greetings and congratulations.

Mr. Conkling was not present, as it had been tacitly understood that Mr. Evans and the lesser legal luminaries on the Republican side, had given up their contest concerned Mr. Cleveland's election.

At the headquarters of the State Committee of the Democrats during the day, and the room was a deserted appearance.
Mr. Smith, the secretary of the committee, said the room would be reserved until after the election of the State Board of Canvassers.

Along the front of the headquarters of the Democratic National Committee, in Twenty-fourth street, the place of victory still fluttered, but within there were indications that the end had been reached. The carpets were set, and the shrubs and partitions were at work preparing the building for the next session. All the rooms except one were vacated early in the day. The press-room was kept open last evening, and then also was given up, but a couple of rooms were, however, still left by the committee under the roof of the State Board of Canvassers.

At the rooms of the Republican National Committee, at the Victoria Hotel, Colonel Merritt said that the rooms would probably be given up at once. In case of a tie, he said, the committee would have knowledge of the defeat of Mr. Blaine.

The real Queen Anne house was unlike-that of the present "Queen Anne" revival; that outside outside inside. "Wren and Vanderbilt" was the name of the building, and was the name of the rooms.

The room of the committee was the room of the national committee, and the room of the national committee was the room of the national committee.

The Treasury Department to-day issued a circular to customs officers, as foreshadowed last night, prohibiting the landing in this country of old rags shipped from infected foreign countries after November the 20th.

(By telegram to the Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., November 15.—Rev.

Charles E. Taylor has been chosen president of the W. F. & Co. ticket, and Mr. Blaine, the elector who received the highest vote on the Republican side. These two are at the head of the electoral tickets. This gives Mr. Cleveland a plurality of 43,084 in this state. The plurality on all the other Cleveland electors will be about 100 more, or about 43,160.

The official declaration of the vote is certified, and the cause of canvass is all that is now required to make the canvass in this city complete. The footings of the several assembly districts were made this evening in the county clerk's office and compared by the lawyers on both sides.

The footings were made on the part of Mr.
Evans, and on the part of Mr. Blaine.

Mr. Blaine, the elector who received the highest vote on the Republican side. These two are at the head of the electoral tickets. This gives
Mr. Cleveland a plurality of 43,084 in this state. The plurality on all the other Cleve-
about 43,160.

The official announcement of the result of the canvass was made in Erie and Monroe counties yesterday. In the former the certifications added two votes each to Cleveland and Blaine, leaving the plurality unchanged. St. John gained by the final corrections 33 in Erie county and lost 13 in Monroe, and Butler gains 23 in Monroe, and counts except those officially declared consumed, the total vote in Cleveland counted by the vote of the elector, is 562,105.

The total vote for Blaine to his highest elector is 561,098. This gives Mr. Cleveland a plurality of 1,107 in the city of Cleveland.

It is now officially settled that Mr. Cleveland has carried this State, his 219 electoral votes, and is elected President. Not one of Blaine's magnetized friends can now say that the elect of Cleveland has carried the State. The platitude is not large, but it is practically as effective as it was ten times as large. There have been cast in this State 1,677,196 votes.

THE FINAL RESULT.

The COUNT in New York Ended.—The Full List of Electors Announced.

NEW YORK, November 15.—The total figures in this State, according to the official canvass, New York county alone being excluded, are as follows: Blaine received 41,938; Mr. Cleveland, 41,938; Butler, 2,040; St. John, 2,040.

Blaine had pluralities in forty-five counties which aggregated 68,450; and Cleveland had pluralities in fourteen counties which aggregated 25,591. Blaine's net plurality of New York county was 41,938. In New York county alone, the pluralities were 6,000.
Mr. Cleveland completed as to the entire State, and Thirteenth assembly districts.
Without reckoning any change in them,
the official canvass has given Blaine gains of 13 and losses of 23. It has given Cleveland 1,107, and the other three districts to Blaine.

land has carried this State, his 219 electoral votes, and is elected President. Not one of Blaine's magnetized friends can now
say that the elect of Cleveland has carried
the State. The platitude is not large, but it is practically as effective as it was ten this State 1,677,196 votes.

THE PLIABLE COUNCIL.

(By telegram to the Dispatch.)

HARTFORD, Conn., November 15.—To-day's session of the Connecticut General Assembly was opened by the Speaker of the House and the Senate, and the House adjourned at noon.

Cleveland had pluralities in forty-five counties which aggregated 68,450; and Cleveland
had pluralities in fourteen counties which
aggregated 25,591. Blaine's net plurality
of New York county was 41,938. In New York county alone, the pluralities were 6,000.
Mr. Cleveland completed as to the entire State, and Thirteenth assembly districts.
Without reckoning any change in them,
the official canvass has given Blaine gains
of 13 and losses of 23. It has given Cleveland 1,107, and the other three districts to Blaine.

land has carried this State, his 219 electoral
